

Nelda Gilliam & Don Kramme

Don and Nelda have been dancing together for ten years. They first met at Scherrer Round Dance Class. Don did not become a square dancer until several years later. Nelda learned to square dance in Wyoming before moving to St. Louis in 1996.

They are both officers of Singles and Doubles. Nelda has served as Raiding Chairman for the past 13 years. She has led the club to a record 29 "We Done It's". Don has served as President for the past 8 years. They are both members of GB Rounds. Nelda is also a member of Jefferson County Squares and Merry Mixers.

They have served as Jamboree General Chairman and are General Chairman for this year's Sweetheart Dance.

Life long avocations include dressage horses for Nelda and flying for Don. He is Treasurer-Secretary of the Gateway Chapter, Missouri Pilots Association. Nelda has 3 grandchildren in Wyoming and Don has 4 in West St. Louis County.
