

Pat & Joe Hilton

Joe and Pat learned to Round Dance in 1980, while Joe was stationed with the U.S. Army in Germany. In 1997, when Pat became interested in cueing, they joined ROUNDALAB (an organization of professional Round Dance teachers). In 1999 they taught their first dance class. They are active members of their local, state, and national round dance organizations. They are Past Presidents of the St. Louis Area Round Dance Council, Past Presidents of the Missouri Round Dance Association, and have served as ROUNDALAB's Vice Chairman.

They have showcased and taught at the International Choreographed Ballroom Dance Association Convention, the National Square Dance Convention, state festivals, dance weekends, and local events.

Joe is Retired and Pat is a Contracting Specialist.

They love dancing in all its forms, but most of all, they treasure the friendships they've made through dancing.
