2025 Square Dancers of the Year

The 2025 Square Dancers of the Year exemplifies the square dance community. People who were not sure about joining the square dance community decided to try it and now they are avid dancers. They have the spirit of a square dancer, that of “being there” when there is a need for help in a project, Stepping up for the task at hand.

In 1981, Carl and Cindy started down the square dance road by taking lessons. The beginning of new adventures and now they have met a large community of dancers all over the United States which some become friends for life.
